

Making Early Purchases.

There's good judgment in buying your autumn and winter supplies early in the season. The stock is so complete that you secure exactly what pleases you for style and quality, and are thus assured of perfect satisfaction in your shopping. The extra effort made by our store to make this memorable season for prices, qualities and styles—with the low prices prevailing everywhere in our store—makes it a month of economical shopping for our patrons. The right qualities—the right styles—the lowest prices.

Winter Bed Coverings.

Blankets in the various qualities—the larger, liberal kind—beginning at 50 cents for a cotton blanket, with neat borders, and up to $3.00 for an all-wool—with handsomely tinted border—heavy and firm, and western made, Bed comforts—large size—figured materials—plain linings—each 75 cents.

Good Ideas For October.

A full stock of the staple ideas in what is newest and best—with the lowest prices attached. Splendid quality—large, rich patterns—full width, October value 81-3 cents. Staple gingham—apron and dress checks—5 cents per yard. Choicest prints—pretty ideas for the autumn and winter—new colorings—new styles—5 cents per yard. Solidly woven cheviots—not better shirtings anywhere at the price—per yard, 10c. Good quality bleached muslin—soft finish—standard make—5c per yard. Splendid quality 9-4 sheeting—standard—18c per yard. Our yarns are ready for you—at right prices—Saxony, skein, 10c.

There's never any question as to style or value, if selected from our stock. You can buy with the fullest confidence, feeling that you are getting your money's worth in every instance. It's given right back to you, if it isn't that way.

Be Inquisitive.

Ask us questions about our made-to-order suits—get the prices. When you see their finish—their perfectly fitting qualities—you will be more than willing to get inside one of them. Prices are so easy—qualities so superior—you'll be interested. The Edward Rose & Co., Chicago, make.
